

Introduction to ICU Q&A not answered in time

Questions	Answers
Are there special application for the school if you have the IB Diploma?	IB diploma candidates are welcome to apply to any types of admissions, including English-based Admissions (April/September entry), as long as they meet eligibility requirements for each admission system. In addition, a new category of Sogogata-Sembatsu for IB candidates will be introduced from April 2021 entry (Japanese-based admission). Please kindly note that you are required to enroll at ICU once you get accepted through this admission system. Please refer to https://www.icu.ac.jp/admissions/undergraduate/exam/ for more details.
I'm a foreign student studying in Japan. My English is not very good. Can I study in English in ICU?	Since ICU is a bilingual university, all students will be required to study both in Japanese and English. We have EJU-based Admissions (April/September Entry). Please check our website for details. https://www.icu.ac.jp/admissions/undergraduate/exam/ If you enroll at ICU through EJU-based Admissions, you will be required to take the English for Liberal Arts Program(ELA), which will help you to acquire English proficiency.
How many Japanese students can study abroad during their 4 years in ICU?	In total, 60.8% of ICU students study abroad during their 4 years.
If you are equally good in Japanese and English which do I take? ELA or JLP	If you enter ICU through English-based Admissions (April/September Entry), you will be required to take the Japanese Language Programs(JLP). If you are admitted through admission systems conducted in Japanese, you will be required to take the English for Liberal Arts Program(ELA).
If you do bachelor at ICU the first two years, can I then continue and do my masters at for example at european university?	Please ask the European university that you are interested in. If BA is required, it will take minimum 4 years to obtain BA at ICU.
What is the most optimum GPA/ SAT score when applying for ICU from a different country	As for SAT, please refer to http://www.icu.ac.jp/en/admissions/undergraduate/faq/ for the average score of admitted students for the last 3 years for your reference. As for GPA, we do not set a minimum GPA requirement as in some countries GPA system is not used. The screening committee will carefully examine not only your cumulative GPA but also your progress through high school and each course level of grades.