1) Regarding Responses to Posts and Comments
As a rule, we do not respond individually to posts or comments on the Sacred Music Center's social media pages.

2) Regarding Specific Inquiries
For specific inquiries regarding the Sacred Music Center, please review the Sacred Music Center's official website (https://office.icu.ac.jp/smc/) and then contact us by email at smc@icu.ac.jp.

3) Deletion of Posts and Comments
In managing our social media pages, we may hide, delete, or reject comments—in whole or in part—without notifying the poster if we determine that they fall under any of the following categories.

・ Content that violates laws, regulations, or other applicable rules
・ Content that is contrary to public order and morals
・ Content that encourages criminal activity
・ Content that slanders or defames specific individuals, companies, organizations, etc., or damages their reputation or credibility
・ Content that infringes on privacy, such as by disclosing or leaking personal information without the individual's consent
・ Content that infringes upon the University's or a third party's copyrights, intellectual property rights, portrait rights, or other rights
・ Content intended for commercial gain
・ Content that is false or significantly differs from the facts
・ Comments unrelated to the posted content
・ Any other content deemed inappropriate by the University

4) Copyright and Other Intellectual Property Rights

All rights, including copyrights and other intellectual property rights, related to this account belong to the University or to third parties from whom the University has obtained permission for their use. Unauthorized copying or reproduction constitutes copyright infringement. When quoting or otherwise using content from this account, please be sure to clearly cite the source using an appropriate method.

5) Disclaimer

・ Information posted on the University's social media pages is intended to be supplementary. Official announcements from the University will be posted on the University's official website (https://www.icu.ac.jp/).

・ The University assumes no responsibility whatsoever for content (comments, photos, videos) posted by users.

・ The University assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any damages incurred by users as a result of using or being unable to use the University's social media pages.

・The University assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any damages incurred by users or third parties arising from disputes between users or between users and third parties in connection with the University's social media pages.

・ Although the copyright and other intellectual property rights in posted content belong to the user who made the post, by having the content displayed on the University's social media pages as a result of the post, the user is deemed to have granted the University the non-exclusive right to use (including reproduction, adaptation, translation, excerpting, and publication) all or part of the content worldwide without the user's prior consent or payment of compensation to the user and is deemed to have agreed not to exercise any copyright or other intellectual property rights against the University.

・ The University may amend this Policy without prior notice.
