

December 23, 2021

Updated as of August 23, 2022

Introduction of Duolingo English Test for Refugee Status Applicants or Applicants in Similar Serious Situations of Forced Displacement

Applicants with refugee status or in similar serious situations of forced displacement may submit results of the Duolingo English Test, instead of IELTS or TOEFL, as proof of English proficiency when they apply for the English Language Based Admissions (April/September Entry).

The minimum score requirement for the Duolingo English Test is 110 for applicants through the English Language Based Admissions (April/September Entry) route.

Contact before applying for the English Language Based Admissions:
admissions-center@icu.ac.jp

*The underlined section has been added and updated as a new measure (as of August 23, 2022).

Admissions Center
International Christian University