

For Students Planning or Wishing to Enter to ICU in AY2026:
Special Provisions for Students Affected by Disasters Caused by Earthquake in Noto-Hanto in 2024

To all those affected by disasters caused by the earthquake, ICU offers its sincere prayers for the expeditious recovery of the stricken area and for its people.

International Christian University has put in place special provisions for students affected by the disasters; this concerns persons planning to enter ICU in the 2026 academic year. Information on these special provisions can be found below. Any students who wish to take advantage of these provisions should follow the application procedures described here.

1. Who is Eligible (College of Liberal Arts and Graduate School)

Special provisions are available to students who plan or who wish to enter ICU in the 2026 academic year. These students are to have had losses to their family's primary household accounts (losses to either person or property) in areas under the National Disaster Relief Act affected by disasters caused by the earthquake in Noto-Hanto in 2024.

Please refer to「令和六年能登半島地震に係る災害救助法の適用について」for details on the areas defined under the National Disaster Relief Act. Please check the most updated information at http://www.bousai.go.jp/taisaku/kyuujo/kyuujo_tekiyou.html. This information is provided in Japanese by Cabinet Office, Government of Japan(in Japanese 内閣府 Naikaku-fu) .

2. Measures Offered

Pending confirmation of your application and proof of qualification for disaster relief, based on the degree of damages sustained, ICU offers the following exemptions.

Note:

- Students affected in ways not outlined above, should contact ICU to find what provisions may be offered.
- Special provisions are offered based on an investigation of each application. Depending on an applicant's particular situation there may be cases in which some or all exemptions cannot be provided.

3. Application Documents

a) “Application for Special Provisions (Fee Exemptions) for Students Affected by Large-Scale Disaster”

Please complete the application form for special provisions in full. In describing the degree of damages, please complete these sections with information as described in your proof of qualification for disaster relief.

b) Proof of Qualification for Disaster Relief (copy accepted)

This is the document titled in Japanese as “罹災証明書” (“risai sho-mei-sho”). This document is usually issued by the local office (e.g., city hall, town hall) for cases in which buildings have collapsed and is usually issued by the fire department in cases in which buildings have been damaged or destroyed by fire.

There may be cases in which you are requested to provide additional documentation to demonstrate the extent of damages sustained.

4. How to Apply

Please send the application documents by post or email to the appropriate office as indicated in ‘Contact’. If you are unable to submit your applications by the deadline indicated for some reason, please contact the appropriate office to discuss the matter.
